Warren and Mary lead the Dallas, Texas, branch of the National School Project (NSP), which seeks to reach every student for Christ.

the couple will partner with local churches to reach students at schools in the Dallas area.

PRAISE

Although many NSP events had to be cancelled due to the virus, they were able to hold 40 on-campus rallies before the shutdown. They have also been able to adapt their fundraising banquets and rallies for an online format, so please pray for continued creativity and participation in these events.

This spring they welcomed two new staff members, a married couple who have been working in ministry for ten years now. After they raise support,

PRAYER

Please pray that the Christian students in the 500 schools in the Dallas area would desire to tell others about Jesus and would have boldness to proclaim the gospel.

Pray that local churches would become excited to partner with NSP, and pray for wisdom as the NSP staff trains and coaches students who are commissioned by their churches.

Their ministry branch is still looking for ten more staff members. Please pray that God would bring workers eager to spread the gospel!
