GRACE PARTNERS

DON AND KATHY ALLEN

The Allens serve with The Navigators at CSU Long Beach, where they seek to reach, disciple, and equip students "To Know Christ and Make Him Known" as lifetime laborers.

intently on what it means to abide in Christ and have made it their theme for the fall semester. Pray that the Allens and those involved in their Bible studies would grow as those who practically abide in Christ.

PRAISE:

God has answered many prayers in bringing 10 new members to their team, including 8 students and 2 staff members. They are thankful for the love their team members have for God and His Word and feel privileged to be able to invest in their growth.

They are doing ministry almost exclusively through Zoom and phone calls. Although some new students have joined their ministry this fall, they would appreciate prayer that God would add others He desires them to reach and disciple.

PRAYER:

Along with others who serve with The Navigators, the Allens are focusing

The Allens are currently working remotely in Virginia so that they can help with critical needs in their family. Pray for the grace and strength to be used by God on both coasts!
