GRACE PARTNERS

OUR PARTNERS SERVING OVERSEAS

Our Partners facilitate short-term programs and partnerships

PRAISE:

They have received additional financial support in the last six weeks, which will help reduce their current deficit and address some expenses. They are very thankful for this provision!

Our partners are grateful for more flexibility in trainings they would otherwise not be able to attend in a busy season of family and ministry life.

They are rejoicing in God's faithfulness to each member of their family. He has especially provided for their daughter, who is applying for college.

PRAYER:

Our partner's brother and parents are fighting Covid. His brother has been sick since Thanksgiving and is in the hospital with bilateral pneumonia. Please pray for his complete healing, and that God would be glorified as his wife cares for the family.

Please pray for wisdom and provision as they decide whether they should replace their vehicle or continue with expensive repairs on their current car.

Pray that during this Christmas season they would find both time for rest and for reflecting on what God has done. Pray that their ministry and family priorities would reflect God's leading as they enter 2021.

There are many unknowns regarding their daughter's transition to college next year. Pray for wisdom, as they do not think it best to be separated in two different countries while Covid is impacting travel.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE | DECEMBER 24 @ 5PM

It was the most wondrous night ever.

*A very pregnant Mary,
an inn with no room but the back shed,
oxen to observe the birth of the One who created them,
an angel choir,
and shepherds who were invited to welcome this very special child,
the Savior of the world.*

Come and join us outside this Christmas Eve (Dec. 24) at 5pm for an hour as we retell the Christmas story and sing the carols that remind us of the true reason to be joyful this season.

We invite you to bring your own chairs, or if needed, we can provide one. Dress warmly!
