Our Partners focus primarily on the local church through pastoral ministry, training church youth leaders, and discipleship.

our Partners. They have also had the opportunity to receive training and work on long-term discipleship projects with other pastors.

PRAISE:

Although they really miss school, their children have been very positive about their online classes. The school they attend has made many efforts to engage and encourage students.

Their daughter, who they are in the final stage of adopting, recently had cochlear implant surgery. Please pray for continued healing, especially for nerve weakness that is common after surgery.

The last year has been a rich time of personal reflection and study for

PRAYER:

Please pray that the courts would open so that their daughter's adoption can be completed soon.

Pray for wisdom and safety as they seek to restart in-person church activities.

Our Partners have been seeking to plant a church, but these plans have been put on hold this year. They are still waiting to receive final approval for use of the land, so please pray for favor as they finish this process.
