GRACE PARTNERS

RICK AND MELANIE FLOYD

The Floyds serve with Wycliffe Bible Translators. Rick is a translation consultant, and teaches Linguistics at Biola. Melanie works with Wycliffe missionaries transitioning back to the States. Both are also engaged with various ministries at Grace.

a deeper recognition of who he is in Christ, and for faithfulness and constancy in the middle of flux.

PRAYER: Pray for strength and resilience for Melanie in balancing her Wycliffe Member PRAISE: Rick's consulting with the Wanca translation team on the book of Zechariah has been fascinating and very encouraging.

PRAYER: Rick's time teaching at Biola is at an end, and he is feeling a mixture of grief and relief. He will now need to identify and establish an adjusted trajectory and management of work responsibilities. Pray that he would find Care job and her role in Grace's Children's Ministry. She loves both jobs so much, but desires prayers to do her very best when there is a surge of changes and she is required to adjust as we have done during the pandemic. Please also pray for wisdom and emotional strength in serving her aging parents and other 'people' needs that she is involved with.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

BAND OF BROTHERS | MAY 1 AT 8:30AM

Doug Axe will be sharing our monthly, "One Man's Story," on May 1. The aim of this series is to consider how one man's story intersects with your own story and how both stories are shaped by the life-changing story of Jesus Christ.

The meeting will include small and large group interaction. No breakfast will be served on site, but you are encouraged to join the many who head over to Mike's following the meeting. So, plan on bringing a friend and a chair and prepare to be blessed through the story of Doug Axe!

The meeting will take place on the central patio from 8:30-10am. This will be our last Band of Brothers meeting until the autumn.

LORD'S SUPPER SERVICE | MAY 2 AT 6PM
