GRACE PARTNERS

LUKE AND LAURA

Luke and Laura serve in Central Africa to reach unreached tribes in their country through their healthcare training as a platform to build relationships for sharing the Gospel.

PRAISE: Our time in the States has been so good for our family. Laura is almost back to normal. Everyone has been really encouraged by the church, people, counseling, and life here.

PRAISE: Praise God that some difficult situations on our team have been addressed.

PRAYER: Before going back to Central Africa, we will be going to a wedding and 10-day renewal conference in the Swiss Alps. We will also go to France to see some friends. We will stay in our country for 1-1.5 years and then do our home assignment in Australia. We will be back in the capitol. The girls will go to the MK school in English. Austin is going to the more wealthy French school with French and local children. The plan is to continue to focus on culture, language, and relationship-building for the purpose of discipleship. Please pray for stability and being able to settle in and find a rhythm there.

PRAYER: Now that we have left our previous team, we are praying for some clear direction as to what we should do long-term (location, team, work, etc.). Pray that we would trust God and be encouraged by his past and current faithfulness and provision. Pray for direction in where God is leading us in the future.

PRAYER: Pray for our connections and relationships when we arrive back in Central Africa:

- For Luke's relationship with his language helper, "Adam," who has shown interest in the Gospel. Pray that he would come to faith.
- For Laura as she balances all of the home responsibilities but also that she has opportunities to build relationships outside the home.
- For the representative of the main tribe in the East, the Daju tribe (where we were and hope to be long term), who lives a block away from us in the capitol!
- We would also like to work on connecting local Christians with local Muslims.
